AWARD

This is a complaint under Section 33A of Industrial Disputes Act.

2. It was filed by two workmen of the West Bokaro Colliery alleging that they had been dismissed without the permission of this Tribunal during the pendency of Reference No. 6 of 1952.

3. The opposite party contended that the complainants were only apprentices and were discharged as their work was not satisfactory. It was further alleged that one of the complainants namely Shri Kamta Prasad had since been given an appointment in the colliery.

4. On 3rd February 1954, complainant Kamta Prasad sent an application by post, saying that he had been provided with a job by the management and hence he wanted to withdraw this complaint. The other workman Mr. Anjani Kumar Sinha sent an application on 23rd February 1954 stating that he had obtained appointment with another firm and did not want to join the service of the opposite party. He further said that he had no claim against the opposite party.

5. Notices were issued to the parties fixing the matter for hearing today. At the hearing, Mr. Balram Roy who had been authorised by both the complainants to appear in this case stated that the complainants had agreed to withdraw the complaint and so he did not wish to proceed with it.

6. The result is that the complaint does not survive and is disposed of.

I pass my award accordingly.

AWARD

This is a complaint under Section 33A of Industrial Disputes Act.

2. It was filed by two workers of the West Bokaro colliery alleging that they had been dismissed by the opposite party during the pendency of Reference No. 6 of 1952 without obtaining the permission from this Tribunal.

3. The opposite party filed a written statement opposing the complaint. They alleged that the two were retrenched in pursuance of a general scheme of retrenchment on economic grounds. They therefore urged that the complaint should be dismissed.

4. On 3rd February 1954 one of the complainants Shri Pal Singh sent an application by post stating that he had been provided with a job by the opposite party and hence he did not desire to pursue the present complaint. He also stated that he had foregone all his past claims against the opposite party. At the hearing before me, this complainant was present and he stated before me that he did not wish to proceed with this complaint. That complaint therefore does not now survive.

5. Regarding the other workman Shri Gouri Ram Mistri, the parties entered into a compromise on the date of hearing after some discussion and filed a petition of compromise. A copy thereof is attached herewith. It is fair and reasonable.

6. In the result, I pass an award in terms of the compromise so far as Gouri Ram Mistri is concerned, while the application does not survive and is disposed of regarding Shri Pal Singh.
